food sovereignty is an emerging discourse of empowerment and autonomy in the food system with the development of associated practices in rural and some urban spaces while literature on food sovereignty has proliferated since the first usage of the term in 1996 at the rome food summit most has been descriptive rather than explanatory in nature and often confuses food sovereignty with other movements and objectives such as alternative food networks food justice or food self sufficiency this book is a collection of empirically rich and theoretically engaged papers across a broad geographical spectrum reflecting on what constitutes the politics and practices of food sovereignty they contribute to a theoretical gap in the food sovereignty literature as well as a relative shortage of empirical work on food sovereignty in the global north much previous work having focussed on latin america specific case studies are included from canada norway switzerland southern europe uk and usa as well as africa india and ecuador the book presents new research on the emergence of food sovereignties it offers a wide variety of empirical examples and a theoretically engaged framework for explaining the aims of actors and organizations working toward autonomy and democracy in the food system spinoza new materialism and the contemporary is a book about change through its border passing interpretations it not only transforms the dominant contemporary views of spinoza but more significantly it puts into question the assumptions of those that have produced the dominant view such as althusser negri deleuze as well as the new materialism and the ontological turn including latour benjamin and braidotti these interpretations deploy spinoza as a trope by which they suspend the class contradictions of capitalism and construct a new spiritual capitalism this book through materialist analysis of spinoza puts class back in cultural theory this book offers a comprehensive survey of literary writing in the malay language it starts with the playful evocations of language and reality in the hikayat hang tuah a work that circulated on the malay peninsula in the eighteenth century and follows the malay literary impulse up to the beginning of the twenty first century a time when the dominant notions of malay literature seem to fade away in the cyberspace created on the island of java and the hikayat hang tuah s play and dance on the sounds of malay words seem t be infused with a new vitality no values figure as pervasively and intimately in our lives as beauty and other aesthetic values they animate the arts as well as design fashion food and entertainment they orient us upon the natural world and we even find them in the deepest insights of science and mathematics for centuries however philosophers and other thinkers have identified beauty with what brings pleasure concerned that aesthetic hedonism has led us to question beauty s significance dominic mciver lopes offers an entirely new theory of beauty in this volume beauty engages us in action in concert with others in the context of social networks lopes s network theory explains the social dimension of aesthetic agency the tie between beauty and pleasure the importance of disagreement in matters of taste and the reality of aesthetic values as denizens of the natural world the two closing chapters shed light on why aesthetic engagement is so important to quality of life and why it deserves and gets lavish public support being for beauty offers a fresh contribution to aesthetics but also to thinking about metanormativity the metaphysics of value and virtue theory
